

Main stakeholders	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Communities neighboring sites</li> <li>- Institutions and multilateral agencies</li> <li>- Universities and research centers</li> <li>- Experts and researchers</li> <li>- NGOs</li> <li>- Media</li> </ul>
Main modalities of dialogue	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Project management</li> <li>- Listening</li> <li>- Interrogation and alerts</li> <li>- Cooperation</li> <li>- Partnerships (especially with university chairs)</li> <li>- Mediation</li> </ul>
Main tools and frameworks for dialogue	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Assessment of the safety, environmental and societal challenges for new projects</li> <li>- Voluntary Principles on Security and Human Rights (VPSHR) initiative and tools for self-diagnosis and risk analysis</li> <li>- Societal impact studies begun or conducted in 2021: 103 in the Integrated Gas, Renewables &amp; Power segment and 13 in the Exploration &amp; Production segment</li> <li>- Stakeholder Relationship Management (SRM+) methodology: 13 entities began or conducted studies in 2021</li> <li>- SIMBA (Societal Impact Management and Baseline Assessment) mobile application for the ongoing recording and tracking of the opinions, concerns and expectations of stakeholders</li> <li>- Management of complaints from neighboring communities</li> <li>- Citizen Action - TotalEnergies Foundation Program</li> </ul>
Main entities/teams involved	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Health, Safety and the Environment</li> <li>- Business segments</li> <li>- Security</li> <li>- OneTech R&amp;D</li> <li>- Sustainability &amp; Climate</li> <li>- Legal division</li> <li>- Communication</li> <li>- TotalEnergies' corporate foundation</li> </ul>
Main topics of common interest and identified expectations	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Human rights, including Indigenous and tribal peoples' rights, right to health and adequate standard of living</li> <li>- Employment - conversion of sites with a view to a just transition</li> <li>- Economic development of areas where the Company is established</li> <li>- Innovation and R&amp;D</li> <li>- Access to energy</li> <li>- Major accident risk prevention</li> <li>- Protection of the environment and biodiversity</li> <li>- Climate including deployment of the energy transition</li> <li>- Access to land, sea and resources</li> <li>- Impacts on cultural and religious practices and heritage</li> </ul>