ARTICLE 2 – CONTRACTUAL DOCUMENTS

After having negotiated, the Parties agreed that the Contract constitutes the agreement by and between the Parties and in this respect shall prevail and shall override any and all other conditions and provisions contained in the invoices and other documents issued by the Parties, and shall be applicable insofar as no statutory provision stipulates otherwise.

Verbal undertakings and agreements shall be of no force and effect unless they are confirmed by written agreement between the parties. The Customer shall not be liable for any performance by the Supplier pursuant to a request made verbally or to a verbal modification of the Contract. The Supplier may propose duly identified changes or additions to the GCWS. Any changes or additions to the GCWS proposed by the Supplier shall be expressly conveyed in writing at the same time as its response to the Customer's consultation. If no changes or additions are proposed, the Supplier's response without reservations, or commencing performance or delivering the Supply without reservations by the Supplier, shall be deemed acceptance of the GCWS. Any modifications or departures from these Conditions shall only apply if they have been agreed in writing between the Parties and shall only be valid for the applicable Contract. The Supplier shall not rely on any of these modifications or departures for other Work and Services it performs for the Customer pursuant to these Conditions. The Contract constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties and supersedes and replaces all prior exchanges, undertakings and agreements relating to the Work and Services.

ARTICLE 3 – ACCEPTANCE OF THE CONTRACT AND ELECTRONIC TRANSACTIONS

3.1 GENERAL

Each Contract shall be in writing. Performance of the Work and Services is conditional upon the Customer issuing an Order Form in advance of such performance. For the avoidance of doubt, the existence of the Contract does not confer any exclusivity in favour of the Supplier.

The Supplier shall ensure that it acknowledges receipt in writing of the Order Form within seven (7) calendar days from the date on which the Order Form was sent. Should the Supplier fail to acknowledge receipt of the Order Form within such period, the Customer shall have a further period of seven (7) calendar days within which to notify the Supplier of the Customer's decision to cancel the Order Form, without compensation or other indemnity.

3.2 ELECTRONIC TRANSACTIONS

3.2.1 General principles

If the Customer and the Supplier so provide in the specific conditions of the Contract, the Order Form may be issued in whole or in part by electronic means. Should this be the case, the Order Form may be issued either through an electronic marketplace (hereinafter referred to as the "Marketplace") requiring the Parties to contract with the agreed Marketplace provider, or alternatively, through any other agreed electronic means. Further conditions applicable to the use of electronic means for issuing the Order Form shall be set out in the specific conditions.

Should an electronic Order Form be issued this shall not prevent the Customer from subsequently issuing a paper Order Form and furthermore, shall not prevent the Parties from agreeing that subsequent transactions shall be performed in part or whole by alternative means. All provisions of the Contract shall apply to all electronic transactions and the issuing of an electronic Order Form.

3.2.2 Proof of electronic transactions

Where an Order Form is issued by electronic means, the Parties are deemed to act in full knowledge of the technical specifications (or, by joining the Marketplace, the Parties are deemed to have accepted its technical specifications) aimed at ensuring the identification, integrity and generally the security of correspondence between them. In particular, the electronic Order Form and subsequent electronic notice of acceptance thereof shall constitute an electronic signature which, as between the Parties, shall have the same effect as a handwritten signature and shall also constitute proof of the Order Form and of its acceptance by the Supplier.

Unless otherwise provided for in the Contract, the electronic registers stored on the computer systems of the Marketplace's provider or, failing that, on the Customer's computer systems (which shall have adequate security safeguards in place) are agreed to be conclusive evidence of the entire electronic correspondence between the Parties and, as the case may be, of the payments made. In particular, if a time limit is set for a particular action, only the computer dating system of the Marketplace's provider or, failing that, the computer dating system of the Customer shall be valid and relied upon. The Parties expressly waive all rights to question the appropriateness of or to challenge the validity of any contractual undertaking conducted by way of exchange of electronic correspondence where such correspondence is stored in the form set out above.

ARTICLE 4 – CHANGES TO THE WORK AND SERVICES

The Customer shall be entitled to request in writing that the Supplier makes changes to the Work and Services as initially described in the Contract. Depending on the nature of the proposed change, the Customer shall first consult the Supplier and obtain its advice about the impacts of requested change.

The Supplier shall inform the Customer as soon as possible (and, in any event, no later than seven (7) calendar days following the Customer's request for changes to the Work and Services) of the following: (i) any effect the changes will have on prior agreed completion dates and/or deadlines for performance and/or on the anticipated date for Acceptance; (ii) any variations to the agreed price(s) for the Work and Services as initially set out in the Contract; and (iii) generally, any other impact on the Contract arising directly from such changes. The Supplier shall only perform the corresponding changes after the Parties have signed a written amendment to the Contract or, at the very least, upon receipt of the Customer's prior written consent to the project estimate, the new periods and/or deadlines for performance and to the corresponding variation in the price(s) for the Work and Services.

ARTICLE 5 – REGISTRATIONS, APPROVALS, AUTHORISATIONS

The Supplier warrants that it and its Subcontractors and suppliers, if any, have all statutory registrations, approvals and authorisations required to perform the Work and Services on the Site including but not limited to all licences, permits and registrations with public authorities and all authorisations and certifications as are required from professional organisations. The Supplier shall deliver to the Customer a copy thereof prior to commencement of the Work and Services.

In the event any or all such licences, permits, registrations, approvals and/or authorisations are withdrawn from the Supplier or from any of its Subcontractors or suppliers or are not renewed, the Supplier shall immediately inform the Customer of the same whereupon the Customer shall be entitled to terminate the Contract in accordance with article 20.1.2.

ARTICLE 6 – TERMS AND CONDITIONS SPECIFIC TO THE PERFORMANCE OF THE WORK AND SERVICES

The Supplier is bound by an obligation to obtain a specific result in respect of and guarantees the following:

- The Conformity of the Work and Services,

6.1 DUTY TO INFORM

The Supplier shall ensure it is aware of all potential external factors and conditions (including but not limited to technical conditions) that may affect its performance of the Work and Services and undertakes to inform the Customer of the same and to advise it and give prior warnings, regardless of the Customer's knowledge or expertise. The Supplier shall warn the Customer in particular of all risks connected with the Work and Services, including but not limited any health, hygiene, safety and environmental risk.

Prior to commencing performance of the Work and Services, the Supplier shall carry out a careful examination of the information provided by or on behalf of the Customer for the performance of the Work and Services, such as but not limited to any plans and specifications. The Supplier shall request from the Customer any documents or information, which is lacking.

The Supplier shall inform the Customer, without delay of any and all irregularities, omissions, contradictions, inconsistencies between the information provided by the Customer and the prevailing industry standards. Failure to inform the Customer of the same shall preclude the Supplier from any later right of recourse in relation thereto.

In the event that the Supplier fails to comply with the above provisions, all consequences (including any costs) arising from or associated with any error in or insufficiency of the information provided by the Customer shall be borne by the Supplier.

6.2 COMPLIANCE WITH THE PERIODS AND DEADLINES FOR PERFORMANCE – INCENTIVES FOR LATE PERFORMANCE

The Supplier shall perform the Work and Services within the time limits and/or periods set out in the Contract.

Compliance with the periods and deadlines for performance (including in particular but not limited to the date for Acceptance and/or the date for remedying any reservations arising after Acceptance of the Work and Services and/or, where Acceptance is postponed, the date of putting in Conformity the Work and Services) is a condition of the Contract.

As soon as the Supplier becomes aware that it will not be in a position to comply with periods and deadlines for performance of the Work and Service (including but not limited to the date of Acceptance of the Works and Services), the Supplier shall immediately inform the Customer in writing of the reasons and extent to which it shall not be able to comply and shall propose suitable corrective measures, it being understood that the Customer shall have the right to refuse any measures. The Customer may apply the incentive amounts specified in the Contract, in the event of any non-compliance with periods or deadlines for performance by the Supplier and/or any of its Subcontractors, except if the Supplier is able to prove that it and/or they did not cause such delay. These incentives shall where relevant have the legal effect of “astreinte”. The payment by the Supplier of these incentives shall not affect the Customer’s right in to terminate the Contract in accordance with article 20.1 and to claim damages from the Supplier, in addition to the reimbursement of the price(s) already paid by the Customer for the portion of the Work and Services not performed at the date of termination.

6.3 EQUIPMENT, TOOLS

The Supplier shall keep, at its own expense and risk, its own equipment and tools in good state of repair and in conformity with Applicable Laws and regulations.

The Supplier shall repair or replace, at its own expenses, all equipment, fittings and tools provided by the Customer which the Supplier or its employees or Subcontractors has damaged, so as to restore them to their original state.

6.4 CLEANING AND CLEARING OF THE SITE – PACKAGING MATERIAL

The Supplier shall keep the Site(s) clean and tidy. The Supplier shall, in the appropriate manner and without delay as and when the Work and Services are performed, remove all materials, scaffoldings and temporary structures, debris and other items belonging to the Supplier or for which it is responsible and which are no longer required to continue performance of the Work and Services. All waste produced by the Supplier during performance of the Work and Services shall be removed, disposed of or recycled by the Supplier in strict compliance with Applicable laws and in accordance with any health, hygiene, safety and environment regulations in force at the Customer's Site(s).

ARTICLE 7 – PERSONNEL

7.1 SKILL, PERMANENCE AND MANAGEMENT OF THE SUPPLIER'S TEAMS

The Supplier shall assign to the performance of the Work and Services teams of personnel who have the experience, skills, qualifications, authorisations and certifications required for the proper performance of the Work and Services. The Supplier shall have responsibility for the management and supervision of the Supplier’s personnel who shall remain under its sole and full hierarchical authority.

Any indications or requests regarding the performance of the Work and Services that the Customer may have shall be communicated to the operational representative(s) of the Supplier without this creating or constituting any relation of subordination between said operational representative(s) and the Customer.

7.2 PRESENCE ON THE SITE AND OFFICIAL LANGUAGE AT THE SITE

Whenever the Work and Services are performed in whole or in part on a Customer's Site, the Supplier shall ensure that its teams comply with the Site's internal rules and that said teams wear any identification sign as required by the Customer during the whole of their presence on the Site. The Supplier's operational representative(s) shall be responsible for the said teams and he/she together with the Supplier's safety manager who will also be present on the Site shall be fluent in the official language of the Site where the Work and Services are to be performed and shall be able to liaise with the Supplier's teams and ensure compliance with any and all instructions, rules and procedures in force at the Site.

The Supplier shall be liable for all consequences of non-compliance with REACH.

ARTICLE 9 – ACCEPTANCE OF THE WORK AND SERVICES

Acceptance of the Work and Services shall take place once the Customer has examined the Work and Services to see whether they are in Conformity and only once all elements described in the Contract have been delivered to the Customer.

Acceptance of the Work and Services by the Customer (with or without reservation(s)), or the refusal to Accept shall be recorded in a memorandum dated and signed by the Parties (hereinafter the “Memorandum of Acceptance”).

The decision of the Customer to Accept shall neither exempt the Supplier from its warranties and liabilities for any defects or for any non-Conformity whatsoever which were not apparent at the time of Acceptance.

Acceptance shall take place in accordance with the procedures set out in the Contract, or, should the Contract be silent on such procedures, in accordance with the following:

9.1 ACCEPTANCE WITHOUT RESERVATION

Acceptance without reservation shall be deemed to have occurred once the Customer confirms that the Work and Services are Conforming with the provisions of Contract.

9.2 ACCEPTANCE WITH RESERVATION(S)

If the Customer decides to Accept the Work and Services with reservation(s), the Supplier shall remedy the reservations within the period set out in the Memorandum of Acceptance and the Supplier shall submit, at the agreed date, the Work and Services for a new examination, it being understood that the incentives for late performance set out in article 6.2 shall apply in the event of non-compliance by the Supplier with the date for remediation of the reservations.

If the Supplier has not lifted the reservations within the specified period or if Conformity is not achieved at the date agreed for the new examination, the Customer shall have the option either (i) to perform itself or cause to be performed by a third party, at the Supplier's risks and expense, all work required to be undertaken to lift the reservations, five (5) calendar days after formal notice hand-delivered with receipt to the Supplier's representative or sent by registered letter with acknowledgment of receipt, remained unsuccessful (without prejudice to the Customer's right to terminate the Contract in accordance with the provisions of article 20.1) ; or (ii) not to ask the Supplier to remedy all or part of the reservations subject to a reduction in the price(s) payable for the Work and Services.

9.3 POSTPONEMENT OF THE DATE OF ACCEPTANCE

In the event the Customer identifies that the Work and Services do not Conform during the examination of the Work and Services, and if in the sole opinion the Customer, the Work and Services can be performed in their entirety, and/or that the non-Conformity can be corrected within an acceptable period, then the Customer shall have the right to postpone the date of Acceptance by sending a notice of postponement to the Supplier. Such notice shall include a final deadline for a new examination of the Work and Services. At this final deadline, the Customer may either (i) decide to Accept the Work and Services, with or without reservation(s) in accordance with the provisions of articles 9.1 and 9.2; or (ii) refuse to decide to Accept the Work and Services in accordance with the provisions of article 9.4.

In the event the date of Acceptance is postponed, the incentives for late performance referred to in article 6.2 shall apply with effect from the date of the notice of postponement.

9.4 REFUSAL OF ACCEPTANCE

The Customer shall have the right to refuse to Accept the Work and Services if the same are not performed in full or if they are not in Conformity. Such refusal will mean that the Supplier has failed to perform the Work and Services. In such circumstances, the Customer shall be entitled to terminate the Contract in accordance with the provisions of article 20.1.

ARTICLE 10 – TRANSFER OF OWNERSHIP AND OF RISKS

Ownership of the Work and Services shall transfer to the Customer gradually as and when the Work and Services progress. However, whenever the Work and Services include the manufacture/supply and delivery of any elements, such as equipment or materials (including but not limited to fittings supplies, equipment and associated documents), the transfer of ownership of any such element shall occur at the time of its delivery, except if the whole or part of the payment thereof has been made by the Customer prior to the date of delivery. In such case, the transfer of ownership shall occur in advance as soon as said element can be identified. In such circumstances, the Supplier undertakes to identify and set aside in the name of the Customer, any element as and when the same is manufactured in such a way that such element cannot be confused with the Supplier's own stock or with that of other supplies to be delivered to third parties. The Supplier shall ensure that its Subcontractors (if any), do the same.

The Supplier hereby waives the right to rely on any retention of title clause not expressly agreed by the Customer. The Supplier warrants that it shall ensure its Subcontractors and suppliers' chain (if any) do the same.

The transfer of risks in the Work and Services and of any element, as referred to above, shall occur in all cases at the date of Acceptance by the Customer in accordance with the provisions of ARTICLE 9. The Supplier shall thus be liable for any damages and losses affecting or relating to the Work and Services and any element, as referred to above, before their Acceptance.

The invoice shall, unless otherwise provided for in the Contract, be paid within thirty (30) days from the last day of the month in which the invoice is issued, i.e. 30 days after the end of the month in which the invoice is issued.

Any undisputed invoice due and payable by Customer shall bear interest thereon from the due date of such invoice, calculated:

- a) for invoices governed by the mandatory French laws on payment term, at the rate equal to three times the French legal interest rate in effect in France; or
- b) for any other invoices, at the average rate (for the period of delayed payment) of the three (3) months European Inter Bank Offered Rate (as published by the Banque de France) or its substitute as may be agreed by the Parties, plus one percent (1%).

Payment will be made in the manner provided for in the Contract, namely by bank transfer or, exceptionally, by check.

Payment of any invoice shall not affect the Customer's right to subsequently dispute in writing any unjustified charge.

In the event the Customer justifiably disputes all or part of an invoice or of Work and Services, the obligation to pay the sum in dispute shall be suspended. The Customer shall send a memorandum stating the reasons for its dispute. If agreement is reached on the dispute, the Supplier shall correct the invoice.

Such expenses shall include, but are not limited to, travel expenses, transport, (spare) parts and labour costs.

In the event the Supplier fails to remedy any non-Conformity, the Customer may, seven (7) calendar days after written notice to the Supplier, perform any remedial work itself or arrange for the same to be performed by a third party, at the Supplier's expenses and risks. Any re-performance of the whole or part of the Work and

In addition to the above, the Supplier shall remain bound by all applicable statutory warranties including the warranty for latent defects.

In connection with the Contract, such audits shall cover compliance with all of the Supplier's obligations, whether contractual, regulatory, or concerning standards or best practices in the industry. Information obtained shall not be used for purposes other than the audit and its consequences.

Such audits conducted by the Customer shall not in any way lessen the Supplier's contractual liability, in particular with regard to the extent of its own controls and shall not affect the Customer's right to refuse all or any portion of the Work and Services. The Supplier shall provide to the Customer all assistance necessary for carrying out such audits.

15.2 TRACEABILITY

In respect of any equipment and tools used by the Supplier and the elements delivered to the Customer in connection with the Work and Services, the Supplier undertakes, upon the Customer's written request, to provide the Customer with:

16.2 INFRINGEMENT OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

The Supplier guarantees that it and its Subcontractors (if any), is either the owner of all intellectual property rights pertaining to any delivered elements or that it has been granted all necessary licences from third parties owning these intellectual property rights, in order that the Customer can freely use and exploit such elements in accordance with the provisions of articles 16.1.1 and 16.1.2.

The Supplier shall indemnify and hold the Customer harmless against any and all claims, costs, damages, expenses or legal action by third parties arising out of or in connection with any infringement or any other breach of their intellectual property rights. In case an allegation is made that the Customer may not use an element which forms part of the Work and Services without infringing a third party's intellectual property right, the Supplier shall, at its own cost and at the sole option of the Customer, either replace the element in respect of which such allegation is made, or modify such element so that the infringement or any other breach no longer exists, in compliance with the specifications applicable to such element. Such replacements or modifications shall be performed within periods compatible with the Customer's needs. Should the Supplier fail to make such replacements or modifications, the Supplier undertakes to reimburse the Customer for the price of the Work and Services.
