

Malaysia: TotalEnergies and PTTEP Strengthen Their Partnership

Paris, December 16, 2025 – TotalEnergies has closed an agreement to divest to PTTEP an indirect interest of 9.998% in block SK408 in Malaysia. Further to this transaction, TotalEnergies keeps a 30.002% interest in block SK408.

This partnership with PTTEP in block SK408 marks a new milestone for TotalEnergies in Malaysia, following the acquisition of SapuraOMV in December 2024 and the purchase of interests in multiple blocks from PETRONAS Carigali Sdn Bhd in June 2025.

“With this transaction, TotalEnergies ensures efficient management of its portfolio in Malaysia, while strengthening ties with PTTEP, a long-standing partner of our Company. Together with PTTEP, we look forward to further contributing to the development of Malaysia’s energy resources”, said Nicolas Terraz, President Exploration & Production at TotalEnergies.

About SK408

SK408 is a major gas development, contributing to Malaysia’s energy security. Operated by TotalEnergies, the block forms part of the company’s integrated upstream portfolio in Malaysia.

About TotalEnergies in Malaysia

TotalEnergies has been operating in Malaysia since 1985 and is a long-standing partner of the national oil company PETRONAS. Following the completion of the acquisition of SapuraOMV Upstream, TotalEnergies is the 3rd largest gas operator in the country. The Company employs about 300 people in the country and holds operated interests of 30.002% in block SK408 and 30% in block SK310, as well as interests in 16 other blocks offshore Sarawak and Sabah. Via its affiliate TotalEnergies Marketing Malaysia, TotalEnergies also markets petroleum products. In 2023, the Company signed a deal with PETRONAS and Mitsui to develop a CO2 storage project in Southeast Asia and assess several potential sites in the Malay Basin. The Company is also developing hybrid renewable projects (solar and battery) to supply its B2B customers under the Corporate Renewable Electricity Supply Scheme (CRESS).
